EXECUTIVE ORDER

13-03

February 8, 2013

RESTRICTION ON MOTOR VEHICLE TRAVEL

WHEREAS, the snow from the February 8, 2013, storm continues to accumulate and blow across roads and highways; and

WHEREAS, additional significant accumulations of snow and high winds are expected throughout the State; and

WHEREAS, both Connecticut and Massachusetts have imposed weather-related travel bans on roads and highways; and

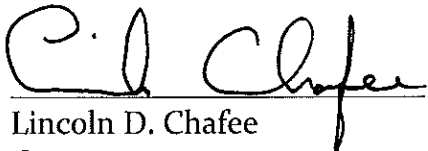

WHEREAS, consistent, coordinated and regional travel restrictions are necessary to prevent motorists from becoming stranded and to allow plows and public safety personnel to do their jobs.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lincoln D. Chafee, pursuant to the powers contained in Article 9 of the Rhode Island Constitution and the Rhode Island General Laws, including but not limited to Chapter 15 of Title 30, do hereby order as follows:

1. There shall be a restriction on motor vehicle travel for Highways I-95, I-195, I-295, RI-24, and RI-146 beginning at 5:00 p.m. today and continuing until further notice. This travel restriction shall not apply to the following:
  - a. public safety vehicles and public safety workers, including contract personnel;
  - b. public works vehicles and public works workers, including contract personnel;
  - c. government officials conducting official business;
  - d. utility company vehicles and utility workers;

- e. healthcare workers who must travel to and from work in order to provide essential health services;
  - f. news media;
  - g. travel necessary to maintain and deliver critical private sector services such as energy, fuel supplies and delivery, financial systems and the delivery of critical commodities; and
  - h. travel to support business operations that provide critical services to the public, including gasoline stations, food stores and hardware stores.
2. This Order shall take effect immediately.

So Ordered:

Lincoln D. Chafee
Governor
